Last of Series of Teas Given at the White House.

MRS. MORE RECEIVES GUESTS

Father of Mrs. Taft Accompanies the President to Pittsburgh to Be the Guest of Mrs. Thomas K. Laughlin. Winthrop Goes to Norfolk on Yacht. Bryce Entertains at Luncheon.

The last of a notable series of afternoon teas was given yesterday in the grounds of the White House. Mrs. More, of Cincinnati, sister of Mrs. Taft, receiving the guests in place of the first lady of the land, who is not yet able to stand the fatigue of a reception.

Mrs. More received the guests in the garden south of the mansion, the President standing beside her the whole afternoon, and her father, Judge Herron, of Cincinnati, sitting near them.

The Marine Band was stationed on the other side of the lawn and played its prettiest, while the guests made the garden and lawns gay with their beautiful gowns, hats, and parasols, the officers of the service being in their full-dress uniforms, thereby lending color to the scene.

The table, with historic decorations, was laid on the lawn, and the White House attendants served sandwiches, ices, cakes, punch, tea, and coffee. The guests included members of the diplomatic corps, the members of the Cabinet, the Supreme Court, army and navy officers stationed hereabouts, many of the divines of the city, and members of smart resident circles. Col. Cosby and Capt. Archibald Butt made the introductions.

Judge Herron, father of Mrs. Taft, who has been a guest at the White House several weeks, left last night with the President for Pittsburgh to pay a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Thomas K. Laughlin. Mrs. More will remain with Mrs. Taft for some time yet.

Miss Helen Taft, the only daughter of the President, will arrive to-day from Bryn Mawr College to spend the weekend. She will bring with her a schoolmate, Miss Isabel Vincent. Miss Taft will go to Gettysburg Monday, where she will meet her father, who will come from Pittsburgh. She will unveil the monument which has been raised to the memory of the soldiers who lost their lives at the famous battle there.

Mrs. Taft's illness, which was quite sudden, is not at all serious, as the breakdown was treated in time, and she is progressing rapidly toward recovery, although her physician forbade her to take upon herself any social duties for some time yet. She is up and about the White House, but has not seen visitors or been out of doors.

The Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Beekman Winthrop sailed yesterday afternoon on the government yacht Dolphin for Norfolk and Old Point Comfort. They will return early next week. They took with them as their guests Miss Marion Oliver and her house guest, Miss Josephine Durand, daughter of the former British Ambassador to this country; Capt. John Hubbard, Capt. Sidney A. Stanton, and Capt. C. M. Knepper.

The British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce entertained a small company at luncheon yesterday at the embassy for their house guests, Canon Henson, of Westminster, and Mrs. Henson. Dr. Prince and Mr. Jordan, of Canada, were also in the party.

Mrs. George M. Robeson entertained at luncheon yesterday in her home in N street.

The Misses de Lagercrantz, daughters of the Swedish Minister; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hiehorn, Count Torok, of the Austrian Embassy; Mr. Martin, of the Swiss Legation, and Count Ugias and Mr. Pousette, of the Swedish Legation staff, went to Baltimore yesterday morning, to be the guests of Mrs. Thomas de Ford at her garden party yesterday afternoon. The party enjoyed a moonlight picnic afterward, and returned here late last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Esmond Ovey, the former the third secretary of the British Embassy, who were married in the home of the bride's parents, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Emory, early this month, have arrived in Italy. They will visit Mr. Ovey's mother, and return to this country about the middle of July and join the British Embassy staff at Northeast Harbor, Me., for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Robert Christy and Miss Katharine Beall Christy are with old friends in Rockville, Md., for the week-end.

The marriage of Miss Clara Beall Cassin to Mr. John Lewis Smith will take place Tuesday evening, June 1, in the home of the bride's mother, 2005 Fifteenth street.

Only members of the family and a very few close friends will be present. The bride-elect is one of several sisters, known for their beauty and many graces. The others are now Mrs. Carusi.
